

ADVANCED INTELLIGENCE SEMINAR #45

15 September - 10 October 1982

Office of Training and Education

Extension

25X1

15-17 September 1982

25X1

25X1

20 September - 1 October 1982--Chamber of Commerce Building
Room 713

Course Directors

25X1

Training Assistant

25X1

25X1

25X1

C O N F I D E N T I A L

COURSE OBJECTIVES

The Advanced Intelligence Seminar is designed to broaden the professional outlook and understanding of the participants by presenting overviews of:

1. Developments and problems facing CIA and its place in the Intelligence Community;
2. Important domestic issues and problems which are relevant to the Agency and its personnel; and
3. Selected international issues and trends that affect U.S. foreign policy and national security interests.

C O N F I D E N T I A L

Page Denied

Wednesday, 15 September 1982

0930)- Check-in and Administrative 1000) Details

25X1

1015)- Seminar Introduction
1030)

25X1

--Administration
--Seminar Overview and Requirements
--Security Procedures

1030)- Student Introductions 1200)

One of the best ways to participate in a group process and broaden one's outlook is to exchange and share information with professional colleagues. The Seminar will begin that process by introducing outelves in terms of background, education, work experience, hobbies, and any other data of mutual interest.

1200)- Lunch
1300)

1300)- The Directorate of 1430) Administration

Harry E. Fitzwater
Deputy Director for Administration

The Directorate of Administration, the Agency's largest, is organized to support the Agency and the Intelligence Community. With the wide variety of activities the Agency carries out, this is no simple chore. Mr. Fitzwater will comment on some of the more unique problems his directorate faces and reflect on what he sees as the significant problems (or opportunities) the DA must deal with in the next several years.

C O N F I D E N T I A L

Wednesday, 15 September (continued)

25X1

1445)- Personnel Management
 1615) in CIA

[REDACTED]
 Deputy Director for Policy Analysis and Evaluation, Office of Personnel

Personnel management in the Agency is of critical interest to all employees. [REDACTED] in discussing current and proposed personnel management systems which affect the handling of the Agency's human resources, will highlight those issues which will have their impact in the next five years.

25X1

1630)- HAPPY HOUR AND DINNER
 1900)

1900)- History of and Changes in the John F. Blake
 2100) Central Intelligence Agency

Mr. Blake, former Deputy Director for Administration, Acting Deputy Director of Central Intelligence, and Staff Director, Senate Select Committee on Intelligence, will approach the history of and changes in the CIA by focusing specifically on domestic events springing from three forces: Presidential actions, Director of Central Intelligence actions, and legislative actions. He will conclude by interpreting, from an historical point of view, the shaping of the Agency by those forces from 1947-1980.

C O N F I D E N T I A L

Thursday, 16 September 1982

0845)- CIA and the Law 1015)

[redacted] 25X1
Associate General
Counsel, and Chief,
Legislative Division,
OGC

The Office of General Counsel has grown rapidly in the past decade, both in size and in the scope of its work. [redacted] will comment on how these changes came about and will review some of our recent experiences in trying to seek legal recourse for our Agency. He will also comment on what legislation remains in Congress and predict its likely legislative path.

25X1

1030)- The Directorate of 1200) Science and Technology

[redacted] 25X1
Executive Officer,
Directorate of Science and Technology

[redacted] will discuss the contribution science and technology have made to intelligence and the probable impact of future technological developments on the Agency's work. He will reflect upon organizational changes and the effect of shifting priorities on the technical collection of intelligence.

25X1

1200)- Lunch 1300)

25X1

1300)- Security
1430)

[redacted]
Director of Security

[redacted] will discuss some current problems in safekeeping of the Agency's secrets, equipment and personnel and outline his thoughts on issues that will affect Agency security in coming years.

25X1

1445)- The Directorate of 1615) Intelligence

Richard J. Kerr
Associate Deputy Director for Intelligence

Mr. Kerr will discuss recent changes in the management of the Directorate of Intelligence and comment on the DI's analytical production--its quality, its acceptance by the policymakers and its image.

1630)- HAPPY HOUR AND DINNER
1900)

C O N F I D E N T I A L

Thursday, 16 September (continued)

1900)- 2100)

The Directorate of Operations

John H. Stein
Deputy Director for Operations

Mr. Stein will share with us his thoughts on the Directorate of Operations and comment on anticipated changes that will help the DO meet challenges in intelligence collection in coming years.

C O N F I D E N T I A L

Friday, 17 September 1982

0900)- 1015)

The Intelligence Community

[REDACTED] 25X1
Director, Office of Community Coordination,
Intelligence Community
Staff

The Intelligence Community Staff, formed in March 1981, assumed all responsibilities of the former Resource Management Staff and the Collection Tasking Staff. Its task is to facilitate the coordination of all Intelligence Community activities. [REDACTED] will describe briefly the Staff's structure and comment on its functions and responsibilities.

25X1

25X1

1200)- 1300)

Lunch

25X1

1315)- 1430)

Office of External Affairs

[REDACTED]
Director, Office of External Affairs

Controversy exists within the Agency regarding the trend toward openness of the past five years. Even the existence of an office that deals with the press is viewed with skepticism by some. [REDACTED] will comment on these views, among others, as he describes his office, its functions, and its support within and for the Agency.

25X1

1430)- 1500)

Administrative Matters

25X1

Please Report to Room 713, Chamber of Commerce Building on Monday, 20 September at 0900.

C O N F I D E N T I A L